

Table of Contents

Introduction: The “Problem” of Migration

Robert Koulish and Maartje van der Woude

I. Border Criminologies

One. Insecurity Syndrome: The Challenges of Trump’s Carceral State

Tony Platt

Two. Cosmopolitanism, Racism and Migration in Europe Today: A Web of Conflict

Dario Melossi

Three. The Promise of the Border: Immigration Control and Belonging in Contemporary Britain

Ana Aliverti

II. Crimmigration Under Trump

Four. The Terrorism of Everyday Crime

Juliet P. Stumpf

Five. The Trumping of Neoliberal Penalty? Trump’s Presidency and the Rise of Nationalist Authoritarianism in the US

Sappho Xenakis & Leonidas K. Cheliotis

Six. Phantom Plenary Norms: Trumpeting Down the Path Towards Immigration Authoritarianism

Robert Koulish

Seven. A Path Toward Nowhere: The Rise of Enforcement-Based Immigration Policy

Doris Marie Provine

Eight. Trump doesn't Tweet Dog Whistles, he Barks with the Dogs:

Examining Trump's Twitter Characterizations of Immigration in the United States

Rashawn Ray & Simone Durham

Nine. Mirrors of Justice? Undocumented Immigrants in the United States and Russia.

Agnieszka Kubal & Alejandro Olayo-Méndez

III. Shoring Up Fortress Europe

Ten. Euroscepticism and the Ongoing Securitization of Migration in Fortress Europe

Maartje van der Woude

Eleven. Sorting out welfare: Crimmigration Practices and Abnormal justice in Norway

Helene O.I. Gundhus

Twelve. The Fight Against Terrorism in Belgium: Criminal and migration law enforcement as pieces of the Belgian counterterrorism puzzle

Lana De Pelecijn & Steven De Ridder

Thirteen. How Does Crimmigration Unfold in Poland?

Witold Klaus

Fourteen. The Old Populism, Authoritarianisms and Criminalization of Migration in Turkey

Zeynap Kasli & Zeynap Yanasmayan