

CONTENTS

Preface and Acknowledgments xi

Introduction: The Bodhisattva Path and the Christ Path 1

Comparative Theology as Christian Theology • Some Historical Background • Theology of Religious Pluralism • Plan of This Book

I Two Paths

1 Two Problems, Two Miracles 25

What to Study? • Bridging Gaps • The Miracle of the Bodhisattva • The Miracle of the Great Exchange • Matchless Wonders

II Perfection of Wisdom and the Bodhisattva Path in Śāntideva

2 The Bodhisattva Path 59

Undertaking the Way of Enlightenment: Text and Reader • Cultivating Awakening Mind: Starting Where We Are

3 Extreme Wisdom, Groundless Compassion 82

Expanding and Dispelling the Self • Perfection of Wisdom • Back to the Bodhisattva • Being Buddha

III Christian Reflections

4 The Bodhisattva as Aspirant: Creatures and No-Self 127

Creatures and No-Self • The Blessings of Emptiness • Mimetic Self: Too Little or Too Much? • No-Self and the Cross

5	The Bodhisattva as Buddha: Immanence and Emptiness 165
	Buddha Nature • Theosis, Divine Energies, and Bare Awareness
	• Attainment and History • Attainment and Self-Consciousness
	• Practicing Bare Immanence • Christ and the Bodhisattva
6	How Do Buddhas Help?: Bodhisattva as Benefactor and Christ as Savior 209
	Many Faces of Compassion • Three Ways That Bodhisattvas Help • Deity and Benefactor Meditation • Christian Reflections • Benefactor Practices in Christian Perspective • Bodhisattva and Christ I: Diversity and Person-Making • Bodhisattva and Christ II: Why Christ Suffers and Bodhisattvas Don't
	Conclusion 261
	Notes 271
	Works Cited 309
	Index 000